

MARY MAGDALENE'S WALK OF THE RESURRECTION

THE NEXT INSTALLMENT OF THE MAGDALENE WORK-- FROM JOAN CLARK

Mary Magdalene's Walk of the Resurrection is a new glimpse, and contemplation, through the eyes of Mary Magdalene-- His beloved partner-- on how Jesus/Yeshua chose to surrender to the holy prayer of, thy will not my will, thy way, not my way. Here is an opportunity to ask of ourselves-- what are we willing to let go of so that more love, truth, and oneness can come forth?

The Walk of the Resurrection allows us to see what is possible as we come to understand that to be fully human is to evolve into our own divinity.

Why now?

There is a rising up and a falling away of the old ways that no longer serve us. There is a thirst for uniting with the divine within and without. There is a need for ceremony, connection and unity as the divine feminine awakens more and more in each of us that part which knows that we are here to love and take care of one another-- as He demonstrated in walking, in service, the path of love he was willing to die for.

The Walk of the Resurrection is a sacred pilgrimage to one's soul path. As it was for Jesus/Yeshua, it is a path which we may also all walk each day-- asking ourselves, Are we willing to stand up in the toughest of moments and know that we are under divine love, grace and protection ; that in the end we will resurrect and ascend; and that the greatest good for all shall unfold?
